MARK THOMAS-SMITH

An experienced and versatile vocalist, Mark has been performing for over 30 years, captivating audiences in both cover and tribute bands.

A mainstay of the Brisbane music scene, Mark has been part of some iconic cover bands as well as treading the boards in musical theatre with ensemble roles in "Jesus Christ Superstar", Pink Floyd "The Wall" and "Rock of Ages".

Mark has lent his vocal skills to number of tribute bands honouring the likes of Led Zeppelin, Guns and Roses and AC/DC, most recently performing stunning renditions of the Meatloaf hits in the Bat out of Hell show.

With a career marked by unforgettable performances and a love for bringing beloved music to life, Mark continues to leave an indelible mark on the music scene in Brisbane.

MATT HUDSON

Matt is an accomplished rhythm and lead guitarist having performed in various bands throughout Australia, UK and Spain.

The driving force behind Wolfpack, Matt is passionate about delivering the best possible music experience for the audience at every venue.

Returning to Australia in the mid 2000's Matt had a stint writing, recording and performing original music in Hardox Band plus other studio work and most recently has been shredding the lead guitar, performing the AC/DC classics across Queensland and Northern New South Wales with an AC/DC Tribute band.

GUILHERME ARALDI

Gui (or Gee) is a seasoned bass player with over 10 years of experience in the music industry. Originally from Brazil, he embodies the rhythm and groove of his homeland.

Gui has many years experience playing in a pub rock covers bands and has held down the low end for a prominent Red Hot Chili Peppers tribute band in Brazil.

After moving to Australia, he quickly connected with like-minded musicians and formed Funk Knuckle, a Funk Rock band that gained local recognition by winning the Passport to Airlie competition, sharing the stage in Airlie Beach with acts like Dragon, Ross Wilson, Ian Moss and Skunkhour.

THOMAS SCHAAB

An exceptional drummer with over two decades of playing and recording experience.

Initially studying the drums with a Latin and Funk focus Thomas has gigged and recorded with a variety of bands in Europe.

Content to mostly play underground club gigs for metal heads, he got a taste for a more commercial approach when opening for an internationally touring Symphonic Metal band in England, and again headlining a local music festival in Germany playing Crossover and Nu Metal.

Soon after arriving in Australia, Thomas joined up with Matt and Gui and was introduced to the Aussie brand of Rock, playing originals in Hardox.

Thomas brings a combination of great skill and energy to the rhythm section of the band and forms an epic combination with Gui in the engine room to drive the songs and keep the crowd moving.
